

INTERNATIONAL WHISKY COMPETITION®

2022 ENTRY GUIDE

“ The Olympics of whisky competitions. ”
- Jim McEwan, Master Distiller.

Overview

Thank you for entering the 13th edition of the International Whisky Competition!

Started in 2010, the International Whisky Competition has grown into the most followed whisky competition with over 100,000 fans (unique visitors on results page) and established itself as the most serious and professional whisky competition in the world.

Unlike other spirits competitions, we only focus on whisk(e)y and we ensure each winner gets the special attention they deserve.

What to expect when entering the International Whisky Competition:

- Unique medals for each winner featuring the category in which the whisky won. These medals are coveted among master distillers and are recognized by whisky fans to have a significant meaning as they are only three medals per category, just like in the Olympics.
- One of the industry's highest return on marketing investment when comparing the cost of entry with the exposure (for medal winners and whiskies rated over 90 Points) directly translating into higher sales.
- Each winning whisky also receives a digital certificate to showcase in your distillery.
- Each entry is rated on a 100 point basis and we offer sticker badges for scores over 85 points. We do not publicly disclose the score of anything below 85.
- Proper attention given to your whisky as each judge is presented with one whisky at a time.
- In-depth notes are taken at every step including various aromas and flavours.
- Promotion of your entries on our social media channels through inspiring posts reaching thousands of whisky fans.
- The Golden Barrel Trophy will be awarded to the team who wins the Whisky of the Year, the highest ranking whisky of the competition. The trophy, just like the FIFA World Cup, will be transferred to the new winning master distiller (or blender) during the summer following the competition.

Results will be announced on June 15th, 2022 at 11AM EST and will be listed on the competition website. Each participating distillery or agency will be notified by email.
